Relief of Administrative Headaches

Forget the spreadsheets and random pieces of paper. GainsKeeper automatically adjusts the securities in your portfolio for trading activity, stock splits, mergers, spin-offs and other messy corporate actions.

Lower CPA Bills

Hey, we love accountants (really, we do), but do you really want to pay them hundreds of dollars to calculate gains and losses and create your Schedule D? GainsKeeper does the boring bookkeeping stuff that allows you to complete your Schedule D for tax filing with a click of a mouse. Now time with your accountant can be spent addressing bigger issues.

GainsKeeper is not an online brokerage. Our subscribers continue to trade with their favorite brokerages. But, by using GainsKeeper, they are relieved of all the bookkeeping associated with their investments.

GainsKeeper is not a portfolio tracker. Nor is it software loaded on subscribers' computers. GainsKeeper is a brand new way of empowering investors through our revolutionary Internet portfolio management tool. Our service captures subscribers' trades, monitors and adjusts them for corporate actions and wash sales, and calculates gain/loss (realized and unrealized) daily. (Try asking your portfolio tracker to do that!)

In addition, subscribers also will have access to quotes, research, news, and helpful investment and tax information.
